The Research Presented Thesis Title

Planning in the development of economic organizations.

The economic institution has participated in recent years and other effective and ineffective developments, so that the pioneering planning of the means and methodology of these institutions in general and its ability to create appropriate innovations in the field of innovation limited resources of the institution in a more rational way, and distinguish services, customer satisfaction more, as it wants from the necessity to have an organization of means and mechanisms that enable it to analyze and diagnose the beginning in this environment (current and future). And since the original management is an approach that performs the basic analysis of the organization (internal light), by adopting a specific option from among the set of available alternatives, and assigning this option to the implementation option and monitoring and monitoring it.

Through the research, we tried to achieve the main goal, which is: Searching for the researcher in the development of economic organizations, which put this research and the focus is on answering the following main problem: What is the role of the researcher in the development of economic organizations? We tried to answer this problem by identifying the economic goal. The stages of planning affecting the economic institution were studied and the success in economic projects was reviewed
